Union of ferns. The bride wore a lovely gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bernice Hartwell, and was given away by her uncle, Mr. W. O. Smith. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Agnes H. B. Judd.

Mr. Edmund Hedemann acted as best man for his brother. After returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hedemann will make their home in this city.

Kamehameha Exhibition.

The doors of the Kamehameha Schools were thrown wide on Thursday afternoon and the public invited to view the year's work which was placed on exhibition. The guests were received by the members of the faculty in the Preparatory building, in the manual department of the boys' school and in the main building, senior hall of the girls' school. Work of every sort was exhibited, some of the sewing and shop work being particularly excellent. Considerable interest was evinced in the affair, between two and three hundred visitors calling during the course of the afternoon.

Commencement was held in the evening of the same day.

A Coming Wedding.

The following invitation has just been received:
Dr. and Mrs. William F. James request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Carrie Ellen, and Mr. Owen Thomas Weiber on Monday evening, June the fifteenth, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, at eight o'clock, St. Andrew's cathedral, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Miss James is a very popular member of the younger set and her wedding is sure to be an event in the week's social happenings.

Col. and Mrs. Ellis' Dinner.

Col. and Mrs. W. E. Ellis entertained at dinner on Monday evening at their home at Fort Ruger. Covers were laid for Col. and Mrs. Hall and Major and Mrs. Ralph Harrison of Schofield Barracks.

Mrs. Phillips' Dinner.

Lieut. and Mrs. Irving J. Phillips of the First Infantry entertained at dinner on Friday evening of last week at their home at Schofield Barracks. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes and Miss Helen A. Alexander. After dinner, the entire party motored over to Col. G. K. McGunagle's dance where the remainder of the evening was most pleasantly passed.

College Announcement.

On last Monday afternoon the inevitable Manoa valley rain dried its perpetual tears and the sun shone down through the feathery algaroba trees which beautify the campus, just long enough for the third annual commencement of the College of Hawaii to be held. A very fair-sized audience filled the rows of chairs in spite of the threatening weather, and the bright gowns and parasols, the beautifully decorated stage, and Captain Berger with his band in their natty white uniforms, combined to make a most attractive scene. Degrees of Bachelors of Science were conferred upon Miss Miriam Clark, Mr. William Barnhart and Mr. Paul Lemke, while Mr. Alfred Warren was made a Master of Science. Miss Clark has the distinction of being the first girl to finish the four-year course at the College of Hawaii.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Ebersole, after which a splendid address was made by Dr. T. A. Jaggar, Jr. The degrees were conferred by Prof. J. S. Donaghoo. The band then rendered several selections while the graduates received the congratulations of their friends amidst a profusion of flowers and leis.

Hui Nalu Dance.

The Hui Nalu boys were hosts at a big dance last evening given at the Outrigger Canoe club for the purpose of raising enough money to send six swimmers to the coast in July to take part in the races to be held there. The hall was beautifully decorated and the large crowd which attended the dance seemed to enjoy every minute of the very pleasant evening.

Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Mrs. James T. Stacker and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth acted as chaperones for the affair.

Mrs. Howland's Recital.

Mrs. Howland, the famous prima donna who has been visiting in Honolulu for the last two or three months, has announced the date of her concert as June 12, to be held in the Hawaiian opera house. She will be assisted by Mr. John Gifford, the well-known young violinist. Mrs. Florence Bocco Johnson, and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck. Mr. Gifford will be heard in solo and also in obligato work with Mrs. Howland.

The announcement of this concert has aroused considerable interest among society folk who feared that this talented singer might depart without giving us an opportunity to really hear her lovely voice.

Mrs. Turner's Recital.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Jessie Curtis Turner gave a most interesting recital on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Baldwin on Punahoa street. Twenty-two young boys and girls including some very tiny tots took part in the very creditable program, and the audience which filled the room were most enthusiastic in their appreciation of the children's work.

Marion Dowsett Worthington is Coast Recital.

The concert given last evening by Mrs. Marion Dowsett in the Hotel St. Francis brought to hearing a very lovely voice, one with the endowment of contralto and soprano, qualities merged in what is termed the mezzo soprano. Mme. Dowsett shows other pleasing traits in sustaining power and tastefulness of expression. The tendency of her voice is a sympathy which runs into plaintiveness, and is even tinged with melancholy to such an extent that in a long list of serious songs one would be filled with tears. This quality was very noticeable in Hahn's "St. Michael's Ave Maria" and "Psyche," by Paladilhe, two of a group which also contained Thomas' "Contra-le Payer" from "Mignon," and with marked feeling.

Mrs. Dowsett's "Elegie" was a delightful number and had the additional advantage of cello obbligato by Herbert Riley. Richard Strauss' "Zueignung" was sung impressively and a group of English songs, an aria each, from "Martha" and "Le Prophete," Stevenson's "Salutation to the Dawn" and the Hawaiian Queen's "Aloha Oe" completed the program as announced, augmented, however, by several encores.

Herbert Riley gave Hugo Becker's "Liebeswerbung," "The Swan," by Saint-Saens, and Popper's "Papillon," the two former showing his usual round tones and intelligent interpretation. The Popper number was fingered with great delicacy and purity of tone and created applause which brought an encore. Gula Ormay played the accompaniments and of his work there is little left to be said, reliability and keen adaptability always dominating—San Francisco Chronicle.

Church Women Entertain.

The ladies of St. Andrew's cathedral and St. Clement's church, assisted by the other branches, were hostesses at a large and enjoyable luncheon on Tuesday, given at the Priory in honor of the clergy of the city and their guests. The tables were beautifully decorated with masses of different kinds of flowers and ferns, and at each of the thirteen was seated a clergyman.

It was a very large and brilliant affair, covers being placed for one hundred and seventy-five.

Society Personals

Mrs. George Rodiek entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening.

Many dinners and a large dance are the order of the evening at the Hotel-wa hotel.

Mrs. Hyde-Smith has been spending a few days at the "Dunes" with Mrs. James B. Castle.

Col. and Mrs. Samuel D. Sturgis entertained at dinner on Monday evening at Schofield Barracks.

Miss Margaret Center was hostess this afternoon at a very jolly and informal surfing party at Waikiki.

Mrs. Theo. F. Lansing is expected home on the sixteenth of this month after some time spent at the coast.

Rev. and Mrs. John Osborne entertained a number of the visiting clergy at their home on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hubert Jones of Honolulu were dinner guests of Capt. and Mrs. Kremers Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Paris Fletcher, who has been the house guest of Col. and Mrs. F. H. French, returned to the coast on the Matsucia Wednesday.

An informal and very jolly picnic supper was enjoyed by a number of the Kunalu girls at their boat house last Thursday evening.

Miss Muriel Hind and Mrs. Oswald Hind were passengers on the Sierra, but spent only a couple of days in Honolulu leaving on the Mauna Kea Wednesday for their home in Hilo.

Mrs. R. M. Cutts was hostess at an informal supper at the Outrigger Canoe club on Thursday. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow and Mrs. John D. Reardon. Covers were laid for 26.

Miss Butler did some very creditable modeling in San Francisco, and her studies of Senor Arana, Mr. David Anderson, Father McMillen and Mrs.

Buckley are quite wonderful in their fidelity to life.

Mrs. Baldwin Wood returned on Monday from the Volcano house where she visited her sister, Mrs. Harold Dillingham. She expects to sail today for her home in California after a very strenuous two weeks' visit.

Miss Irene Aiken returned to her home in Kahului, Maui, on the Claudine, sailing Monday afternoon. Miss Aiken has been in Honolulu for the past nine months during which time she has been studying art at the College of Hawaii.

Miss Alice Rice, who has recently returned from Europe, where she has been studying music for some time, has opened a new studio at 819 Bere-tania street, between Kapiolani and Alapai. Miss Rice is a very brilliant pianist and her return has a great asset to local musical circles.

On Wednesday evening the Men's Club of the Episcopal church gave a large dinner at the University Club for the clergy of the city. Covers were laid for about sixty-five.

On the same evening Mrs. Restarick was hostess to the wives of the different clergymen, entertaining them all at dinner.

Miss Marie Heuer, the charming instructor of German at the College of Hawaii, left on Tuesday for Kana-i where she will visit during the summer months. Miss Heuer arrived in Honolulu from Berlin last February, having been called to the college, and in the few months she has been here she has won a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baird left on the Matsucia Wednesday for the coast. They will spend the summer in California, where they will visit Mrs. Baird's mother; then after several months spent in traveling they will return to Honolulu in January. In the meantime their Waikiki home will be in the hands of Mr. G. H. Buttolph.

Many of the friends of Miss Florence Butler do not know that she is a sculptress of considerable ability. The portrait bust of Captain George Steu-nenberg, which she has just recently finished, is attracting much attention by all those who appreciate good work. It is very well expressed, Captain Steu-nenberg's strong personality being wrought out in a masterful way by this clever young woman.

Miss Margaret Ashford and Mr. Huron K. Ashford returned home on the Sierra Monday after several years spent at school in the states. There were also a number of other returning islanders who have been away daughter, Miss Helen Spalding, were daughter, Miss Helen Spalding were among the home-comers, having been absent about four months during which time they have visited relatives both in the east and west.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

FORT SHAFTER, June 6.—Mrs. Paris Fletcher, of St. Paul, who has been the guest of Colonel and Mrs. Francis H. French for the past few weeks, left for her home by the Matsucia sailing last Wednesday. Mrs. Fletcher has been warmly received at Shafter and has made many new friends both in the post and in Honolulu during her stay. Prior to coming to this garrison Mrs. Fletcher was a guest of her kinswoman, Mrs. Larry B. McAfee, at Schofield Barracks, for a month and was much entertained at that station. Mrs. McAfee gave an especially delightful bridge tea in her honor to which the major portion of Schofield feminine society was invited.

Mrs. William R. Gibson, wife of Captain and Adjutant William R. Gibson of the 2nd Infantry leaves by the transport next Sunday morning to be absent on the mainland for an extended visit. Mrs. O. S. Tower of the 2nd Infantry garrison will also leave by the same transport for the states. A number of affairs have been given in honor of Mrs. Tower during these last few days of her stay in the garrison. Among those so entertaining were Major and Mrs. Lenihan who gave an evening bridge on the evening of the 30th of last month and Captain and Mrs. B. H. Watkins with a large and especially delightful auction bridge on last Saturday at their quarters in the main garrison. Mrs. Watkins had provided unique and attractive tally cards of Japanese design for her seven tables and the prizes were of the same type, they being unusually pretty kimonoes. The fortunate winners were Mrs. W. R. Gibson, Mrs. Paul B. Malone and Captain J. C. Kay with the guest remembrance going to Mrs. Tower. Mrs. Watkins served one of her charming suppers in which a marvelous Russian salad was the chief element, and gave the more than thirty guests a delightful evening.

The third battalion of the 2nd went into the field on Wednesday last to be gone from the post for three weeks and in consequence a number of temporary widows are to be found in the garrison. Of these Miss Helen Alexander took Mrs. Paul B. Malone and Mrs. B. H. Watkins out by motor on Friday to the camp of the battalion for the afternoon. Again on Saturday Miss Alexander took out a party consisting of Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Watkins and Miss Lenihan.

Among those leaving for the States on Sunday morning, on the transport Sheridan, will be Colonel and Mrs. Menoher with their sons, Charles, Dar-row and William; Mrs. Samuel Sturgis, and Mrs. Harold W. Neal with her two children—all of the 1st Field Artillery.
